Dear Edna,

I've enjoyed knowing you and I think you are very friendly. Stay that way!

I wish you much success and happiness, always.

Dear Edna,

I have known you for a long time and have enjoyed every day of it. Never forget our school days at Balfour and then Ishboro High with Clara and Marie. I never can forget the first time I ever saw you. You started off quite well didn't you? That was my second year of school. Then came the third and fourth with all our little fusses and squabbles. The fifth year was fun with Miss Andrews for a teacher. Of course she is married now. Next came the sixth and seventh with Mr. York. Remember how I used to want you to sing when it came my time for early morning programs. Then came the eighth grade with Clara and Marie. May we were a dumb crowd that first year of High School. But how we loved it. Then came the 9th year which is just about gone now. I don't know how you have liked it? Don't ever forget all of the boys in Clara's life. She has had quite a time hasn't she? Remember how Clara scared you the day she got the car to rolling. I hope we will all be together sometime soon. Love,
M. W.

The 1943

Ash - Hi - Life

Asheboro High School
Asheboro, N. C.

Foreword

It is OUR purpose in this volume of the ASH-HI-LIFE to bring before you a glimpse of our high school life as we have lived it. It is our hope that in the years to come, when our memories of high school days become hazy, this 1943 ASH-HI-LIFE will help us recapture some of the light-heartedness and companionship we have known during our high school days.

Dedication

TO MR. N. H. CARPENTER . . . in appreciation of the fine work he has accomplished during his first year as our principal, of his understanding of youth, and of his perseverance in all he does, we, the staff of the 1943 ASH-HI-LIFE, dedicate this annual.

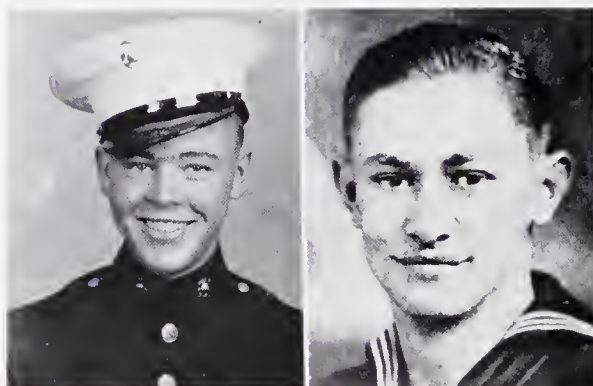

His versatility and love of fair play have won him the admiration of the entire student body. He has undertaken and faithfully executed the duties of his principalship through some of the most trying experiences, and we recognize this opportunity as a privilege to dedicate this book to him.

Of These We Are Very Proud . . .

WE DEDICATE this page to the boys and girls who have gone out from Asheboro High School to serve our country in the armed forces. We pledge to them—wherever they may be—our support and our prayers.

In this busy war-time session of school we pause to honor JULIUS WORTH COPPLE and THOMAS JEFFERSON RIERSON, JR., who have made the supreme sacrifice for the cause which is so dear to all of us. Our Alma Mater stands with solemn pride in the reflected glory brought upon her by these two great sons whose unselfish devotion to their country will ever be an inspiration to those who come after them.

A Message from Our Principal

*If you have been asleep and we have awakened you,
If you have been ignorant and we have taught you—
Then your school is worth its being.*

*For we would lead you to think clearly, without confusion;
to act purely, from honest motives.
Our aim is to guide you into a better world and to so help you that you can take a useful and a happy place in that world.*

*May your reach exceed your grasp.
And may you keep on reaching—up.*

TWELFTH GRADE

FOR THE first time in the history of Asheboro High School, we have a twelfth grade, with twelve members enrolled. These boys and girls, with the exception of Don Michael, received diplomas last year on completion of the eleventh grade. This year they will be awarded diplomas for completing twelfth grade. Members of this new class have chosen their studies mainly from the curriculum as arranged for the eleven-grade school, taking those subjects not included in the sixteen units required for their diplomas last year. The only new twelfth grade subjects are Business English and Typing II.

*Best wishes,
Charles*

History of the Class of 1943

ONE SUNNY September morning in nineteen and thirty-nine, the dumbest and greenest freshmen that ever entered the ancient portals of Asheboro High School walked into the auditorium, waiting to be told where to go, when, and why. After being told, half went to the right room and the other half walked around in circles until some kind, understanding inmates took them by the necks and deposited them in their respective home rooms. Of course, it took a few seconds for us to become accustomed to this new life, but after so long a time we felt as if we were at least half-fledged freshmen. After the first semester of being a queer color of bright, light green, we faded into a more becoming shade of that familiar color and considered ourselves full-fledged freshmen. By the end of the year, we felt we were all duly qualified to be sophomores the next year.

Well, we were supposed to be silly sophomores. Not wanting to disappoint our upperclassmen, we became as silly as we were green our freshmen year. I do mean silly, and I'm not just scraping my pen on paper, lame brain. This second year, trouble started brewing overseas, and we gave two of our sponsors, Mr. Allen and Mr. Cox, to Uncle Sam's service. We had a lot of fun our sophomore year. We boasted a few football and basketball players, so of course at very few games were our tireless lungs not in good order.

The first semester of our junior year we were indeed jolly, as we still believed in living up to our respective names. We took a leading part in all activities. Merrily we rolled along until December the sixth. The Japs woke us up stabbing us in the back. Remember Pearl Harbor! Of course this called for a change of gears in our school activity. The war cast a more serious glow on things. Our Junior Class motto became "Sacrifice for Victory," and that is what we did. We knew that maybe this did not mean that hard times were coming, but we saw those soft times rapidly leaving. After much debate, planning and earning money, we gave the Class of '42 a big "shindig." It was a barn dance, complete with fiddlers, scarecrows, wagons, calico aprons and corn pipes. Never before had Asheboro had such a Junior-Senior Prom. We left the Junior Class confident that we were ready to become seniors.

Now we know! After such a long time we know how it feels to be seniors. Our senior year has been somewhat historical. With Miss Lassiter's resignation, Mr. Carpenter became principal. We joined the fighting forces by collecting scrap, buying stamps. New pre-induction classes were installed. The age of shortages has begun. There has been a shortage of everything from sugar to teachers. Rationing has taught us how to get along with less and less more often. We chose as our leaders Clarence Lane, Ethylene Ragsdale, Frances Walker and Charles Way. One big event followed another. First we got those rings. They are set with a beautiful blue open stone. Next came selecting invitations, mascots, motto, colors, flower and superlatives. Our Senior Play was "Hobgoblin House," a murderous comedy in three acts. Right in the midst of all this, spring has come with the songs of the birds sprinkling the air, and with laughter on our lips—well, naturally we catch spring fever. The fever will be over before commencement pokes its warning head around the corner. It warns us that we are now wringing the last ounces of joy from our high school days.

Now, we become a little sad. We start remembering those "good ole days."

We remember those school parties, those pep rallies, and those ball games where we had so much fun. We remember those drugstore get-togethers with a scarcity of chocolates and chewing gum. We remember those funny little things that happened during class to keep monotony away. We remember that night that concluded our school days, when we clutched our diplomas with trembling hands and tumultuous hearts. We remember the last day when we walked down those steps for the last time and said good-byes.

Isn't it wonderful that we all have memories?

—JOSEPHINE PUGH, Historian.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1943

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS of nineteen hundred and forty-three of Asheboro High School, Asheboro, North Carolina, being of weak minds, poor memories and shallow understanding, do hereby make just and improper disposition of all our goods. We declare this our last will and testament, hereby revoking any or all wills by us before us made. We hereby bequeath all our property, effects, and characteristics as follows:

1. To Mr. Turner, our superintendent, we give our sincere thanks for his efforts in helping us throughout our school days.

2. To Mr. Carpenter, our principal, we leave our deep appreciation for making our Senior year the best.

3. To our Senior sponsors, Miss Barker, Miss Lambert and Miss Powell, we leave our appreciation for helping us through this, our last year at Asheboro High.

4. To all members of the faculty and administration, we grant them that we, the Seniors of '43, can never repay them for their patience in teaching.

5. To Miss Lassiter, our principal for the first three years in A. H. S., we leave our appreciation for her undying patience with us.

6. The following members of the Senior Class bequeath the following items to the lower classes:

We, Joe Kelly, Eleta Faye Hancock, leave our blushing to any Junior who can find the right time to use it.

I, Thetis Brady, leave my Southern accent to anyone who can master it.

I, Bill Trollinger, leave my ability to be odd man to Johnny Lewis.

I, Mary Hamer Nance, leave my heart to E. C. Cox.

I, Jimmy Moore, leave my turned-up shoes with the precious rubber soles to Joe Bulla.

We, Julia Alexander and Doris Covington, leave our big mouths to Juanita Stone and Wanda Trogdon, provided they use them better than we did.

I, Ruth Slack, leave my cradle robbing to Helen Georges.

I, Leo Cole, leave my babyish ways to Johnny Morrison.

I, William Rush, leave my ability to aggravate Miss Barker to Forrest Bray.

I, Ray Herlocker, leave my boisterous ways to Ottis Chriscoe.

I, Fred Sanders, leave my vitamin pills to my "little brother" Harris Sanders.

I, Stanley Smith, leave my ability to ask subtle and searching questions to Billy Baggett.

We, Frank Steed, Walter Hayworth and Wayne Trogdon, leave our superfluous avoidduois to the undernourished.

I, Ethylene Ragsdale, leave my "Panther Eyes" to anyone that wants them.

I, Jeffrey Purgason, would leave my chewing gum to Bobby Walker, but due to the shortage, I'll keep it.

We, Frances Walker, Alene Auman, Bernice Gallimore and Althea Cox, leave our books to the coming studious people.

I, Jimmy Joe Wood, leave my perfect profile to anybody that can get away with it.

I, Tinker Lane, leave my ability to "tinker around" to Cecil Brown.

I, Anne Birkhead, leave my brilliant mind to Peggy Auman.

I, Dwight Causey, do will my height to Don Alexander.

I, Bill Page, leave my dice to any lucky Junior.

We, Tommy Myatt and Frances Steed, do will our sweet dispositions to anyone who will accept them.

I, Billy Hasty, leave all the women to Porter Pritchard.

I, Charlotte Usher, leave the Dramatics Club for Broadway.

I, Mary Frances Hughes, do will my flirtatious ways to Carolyn Crauford.

I, Tommy McKim, leave my wandering mind to Carl Burrows.

I, B. C. Thomas, leave my Buick and money to someone with a "C" card.

I, Colleen Broadway, leave my brazen, bold ways to any shy Freshman.

We, Barbara Byrum and Nellie Brown, leave our sweet ways to some needy Sophomores.

We, Helena Allred, Neil Hamilton, Alma Davis and Dot Lemon, leave our speedy typing to prospective typists.

We, Juanita Cox, Mozelle Albright, Alma Bullard and Frances Lloyd, do will our good looks to the needy Juniors.

We, Joanne Willis and Kat Morgan, leave our hour-glass figures to whom? (who wants them)?

We, Mary Miller, Julia Yow, Dot Loutrell and Mildred Spencer, leave our natural curls to the people who patronize beauty shops.

I, Martha Burrows, do will my skill to get gasoline coupons to someone with four good tires.

I, J. D. Moffitt, leave my drums to Gene Krupa.

I, James Frye, leave my Black Magic to anyone who dares to go out on a full-moon night.

I, Billy Jordan, leave my smile to some gloomy underclassman who can use it to an advantage.

We, Betty Lou Ridge and Don Michael, leave Joyce Jarrell.

I, R. E. Moffitt, leave my dancing ability to Earl Miller.

I, Thelma Lee Sykes, leave my sly ways to Hazel Andrews.

I, Mona Patterson, leave my red hair to "Red" Vuncannon.

I, Magdalene Haithcock, leave the history of my name to anyone who needs it.

I, Dot Lemon, leave my appeal to the men in uniform to "Dood" Newsome.

I, Louise Hix, leave my great supply of energy to Turkey Ward.

I, Wanda Chriscoe, leave my "figger" to Edith Trogdon.

I, Mary Catherine Holt, leave my toothpaste smile to Doris Holt.

I, Carolyn Neely, leave my freckles to my sister, Mary.

We, Lester Varner and Will Lewis do leave.

SUMMARY OF FOOTBALL SEASON

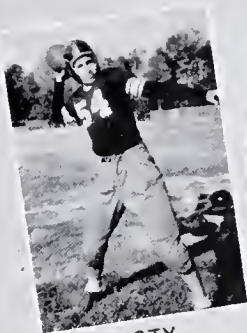

ASHEBORO HIGH SCHOOL, under our new coach, Paul Cheek, began our first season in the South Piedmont Conference, with a 14 to 0 loss to Sanford. Next came Mill's Home, destined to become the conference champs, who beat us 6 to 0. We were beaten three more times in succession by Kannapolis, 7 to 6; Mt. Airy, State B class champs, 26 to 0; Children's Home, 38 to 0. With this experience under our belts, the team, showing a lot of improvement, beat Mocksville 20 to 0. In one of the best played games of the year, Gray High (Winston-Salem) beat us 20 to 13. In another thriller we tied Wadesboro 14-14. Then came another tie with Thomasville 13-13. We beat Troy 7 to 6, and then finished the season with a 52 to 7 victory over Chapel Hill.

Considering the teams we played, this was one of our most successful seasons in years.

SUMMARY

WITH THE RETURN of four regulars from last year's squad, Asheboro had the prospect of one of its best seasons. We defeated Siler City here, 56-23. High Point then beat us twice in succession, there, 40-28, and here, 63-25. Because of the change in the O. P. A.'s ruling on gas rationing, we had to cancel our conference schedule to play county teams.

We were undefeated in county play, defeating Franklinville two games, 56-13 and 70-17. Next we downed the Randleman five by the score of 43-19. We ended our regular season by topping Seagrove, 65-35.

We entered the County Tournament, and in the first game we trounced Gray's Chapel, 45-12. In the semi-finals we defeated a strong Ramseur Club, 45-23. Seagrove, the final obstacle in our path to the County Championship, was overcome by a score of 31-23.

The final games of the season will be at Kannapolis for the South Piedmont Conference Championship.

Dear Edna,
We sure have been good pals this year and I hope we are next year. Don't forget the good "ole"
times we've had in General Business.
Don't forget me and my boy fancies. Remember them? May your life be filled with success, luck,
and happiness, and the best of everything
Good luck!
